

Mount Allison University

Centre for Canadian Studies

2012 Winter Events

Monday 16 January 2012

The George F.G. Stanley Lecture

Dr. Michael Fox

Crabtree Auditorium 7:00 p.m.

Wednesday 25 January 2012

Canada Council Reading

Emma Haché

Owens Art Gallery 4:00 p.m.

Monday 30 January 2012

Canada Council Reading

Jessica Grant

Owens Art Gallery 7:00 p.m.

Monday 6 February 2012

Atanarjaut: The Fast Runner

Film screening/panel discussion

Vogue Cinema 7:00 p.m.

Friday 10 February 2012

Canada Council Reading

John Mighton

Owens Art Gallery 4:00 p.m.

Thursday 8 March 2012

The 'F' Word:

Fatness and the 'Obesity Epidemic'

Crabtree Auditorium 7:00 p.m.

Dr. Fox, Geography & Environment, Mount Allison, will deliver the annual Stanley Lecture in Canadian Studies: "Raising a Red (and White) Flag on Canadian Studies in our Schools: A Challenge to the Ministers of Education"

Governor General award-winning playwright Emma Haché will read from work. Co-sponsored with the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures (French)

Newfoundland writer Jessica Grant will read from her award-winning novel Come, Thou Tortoise (2009)

Panel discussion with Zacharias Kunuk, film maker and director, Atanarjaut; Inuit scholar Sheila Watt-Cloutier, and Ian Mauro, Canada Research Chair, Human Dimensions of Environmental Change

Award-winning playwright and mathematician Dr. John Mighton will read from his work in conjunction with Mount Allison's 2011-2012 President's Speakers Series

A panel discussion with professors Wendy Mitchinson, Deborah McPhail, and Jenny Ellison

All events are free and open to the public. Everyone welcome!

For more information: Dr. Christl Verduyn, Director, Centre for Canadian Studies, Mount Allison University