The Department of Music at Mount Allison University invites applications for a position in Voice Performance. This is a full-time term appointment for the 2021-22 academic year at the rank of Lecturer or Assistant Professor, beginning July 1, 2021, subject to budgetary approval.

Preference will be given to applicants with a completed Doctorate in Voice Performance, an established record as a performer, and successful teaching experience at the university level. The minimum requirement is a Master of Music degree. Teaching responsibilities will include weekly studio instruction in voice in the Bachelor of Music program, overseeing student performance preparation, and hearing performance juries associated with these students. Other responsibilities may include a course in Diction. In addition, the successful applicant will be expected to maintain an active performance or research profile and undertake departmental service including outreach, recruitment, and committee work. Lessons and courses will be taught on the campus of Mount Allison University and may include online components.

Application materials should include a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and video recordings of recent solo performances (please indicate dates of recordings). Three letters of reference should be sent directly by the referees. Finalists may be requested to submit additional materials at a later date (such as a teaching portfolio or a video of studio instruction). Applications should be sent to the address below. Electronic submissions are preferred.

Canadian and permanent residents should clearly indicate their citizenship or residency status in their cover letter or CV.

Dr. Stephen Runge
Chair of the Search Committee
Department of Music
Mount Allison University
134 Main Street
Sackville, NB E4L 1A6
E-mail: srunge@mta.ca

Review of applications will begin on February 19, 2021 and continue until the position is filled.

Mount Allison acknowledges, honours, and respects that the land named Sackville, NB is part of the unceded territory of the Mi’kmaq People who are the historic inhabitants, custodians, and dwellers on the land where our University is built and confirms its commitment to strengthening relationships with all Indigenous people.

Mount Allison is committed to diversity and inclusiveness. We encourage applications from members of racialized communities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, and persons of all sexual and gender identities. We seek candidates with qualifications and knowledge to contribute specifically to the further diversification of our campus community.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents are given priority.