The Commerce Department at Mount Allison University invites applications for a one year term position in Commerce. The successful candidate will teach courses in finance, (i.e., Introduction to Finance, Investment Management and Venture Capital and Financial Innovation) although they may also contribute to teaching in other areas of management. They will employ innovative pedagogical approaches and contribute to the wider academic and professional community.

The appointment will commence on July 1, 2018, subject to budgetary approval. Candidates must have a research interest and a strong commitment to teaching undergraduate students. Candidates with a Ph.D. in Management, Economics or a related discipline and a CFP or CFA certification are preferred. An application must include a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, a statement of research interests, a teaching dossier, and names of three referees, and should be sent to:

Dr. Judith Holton
Chair of Search Committee

The review of applications will begin on June 21 and will continue until the position is filled.

Mount Allison acknowledges, honours and respects the Mi’kmaw and Wolastoquiyik (Maliseet) peoples, the historic inhabitants, custodians, and dwellers on the land where our university is built, and confirms its commitment to strengthen relationships with them.

Mount Allison is committed to diversity and inclusiveness. We encourage applications from members of racialized communities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, and persons of all sexual and gender identities. We seek candidates with qualifications and knowledge to contribute specifically to the further diversification of our campus community.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents are given priority. Canadians and permanent residents should indicate their citizenship status in their application.
