

The Department of Psychology at Mount Allison University invites applications for a one-year teaching McCain Postdoctoral Fellow in the areas of human neuropsychology or adulthood and aging. The successful candidate would be expected to teach three courses: Introductory Psychology, a senior seminar in their area of expertise, and one of two third-year courses: either Sensation & Perception or Adulthood & Aging. Essential qualifications for the position include a Ph.D. in Psychology or a related field and a commitment to quality teaching at the undergraduate level. The anticipated start date is July 1, 2019, subject to budgetary approval.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, a statement of research interests, evidence of effective teaching (if available), a statement of teaching interests, and a minimum of 3 letters of reference.

Ideally, applications should be uploaded here: <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/13118>
