

The Department of Politics and International Relations at Mount Allison University invites applications from persons interested in teaching, by stipendiary (part time) appointment, the following four courses:

POLS-2101-A Canadian Government & Politics (3 credits)

Anticipated enrollment 70 students

Fall 2018 semester (September 1st to December 31st)

Monday, Wednesday, Friday 11:30AM - 12:20PM

POLS-3151-A Political Parties and Elections in Canada (3 credits)

Anticipated enrollment 40 students

Fall 2018 semester (September 1st to December 31st)

Tuesday, Thursday 08:30AM - 09:50AM

POLS-2221-A Introduction to Comparative Politics (3 credits)

Anticipated enrollment 70 students

Winter 2019 semester (January 1st to April 30th)

Monday, Wednesday, Friday 10:30AM - 11:20AM,

INLR/POLS-2301-A Introduction to International Relations (3 credits)

Anticipated enrollment 70 students

Winter 2019 semester (January 1st to April 30th)

Monday, Wednesday, Friday 12:30PM - 01:20PM

Preference will be given to applicants with a PhD in political science and teaching experience in the field. Each course involves approximately 3 hours of class time per week, and all courses take place in Sackville, New Brunswick.

Candidates should send a letter of application which clearly indicates the courses in which they are interested, a current curriculum vitae, and the names of 3 references to:

Dr. James Devine

Chair of the Search Committee

Department of Politics and International Relations

144 Main Street

Mount Allison University

Sackville, New Brunswick

E4L 1A7

email: jtdevine@mta.ca (electronic submissions are accepted)

The closing date for receipt of applications is June 11, 2018.