The Centre & Program for Canadian Studies
Mount Allison University

Fall 2012 Events

12 September 2012
Dunn 108
7:00—9:00 p.m.

Documentary and Discussion: screening of “Into the Wind,” a film about Terry Fox followed by discussion and organizational plans for Canadian Studies student participation in this year’s Terry Fox Run, Sackville, NB.

20—23 September 2012
Mount Allison Campus
Various times: see website

23 September 2012
The Owens Gallery
7:00—9:00 p.m.

Stories and storytelling: an evening with Douglas Gibson, former president and publisher at McClelland & Stewart, on working with some of Canada’s best-known writers.

18 October 2012
The Owens Gallery
4:00—5:15 p.m.

Cynthia Good, Director, Creative Book Publishing Program, Humber College, and Mount Allison Honorary Doctorate, on the digital revolution in publishing and careers in the field.

8 November 2012
Crabtree Auditorium
10:00—11:20 a.m.

Netherlands Ambassador to Canada, Wim Geerts, on cultural relations between Europe, in particular the Netherlands, and Canada.

16 November 2012
Depart campus 10:00 a.m.
Return 5:30 p.m.

The Annual Symons Lecture on the State of Confederation with Dr. David Suzuki. Charlottetown, PEI. Contact Canadian Studies for details of bus departure from and return to Mount Allison campus.

20 November 2012
The Owens Gallery
4:00—5:15 p.m.

Canada Council Reading with Canadian novelist and short story writer Douglas Glover.

Watch for more upcoming events!
All events are free and everyone is welcome!

For more information: Dr. Christl Verduyn, Director, Centre for Canadian Studies